

ROUTINES AND EXPECTATIONS

Blueprints for Success

KEY CONCEPTS

- Building relationships is worth the investment
- Arrival and departure set the tone
- Individualizing routines and transitions

BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS

“THE FRAMEWORK”

- Make the investment
 - Nice to meet you!
 - Keep making deposits
- What does the blueprint look like?

SETTING THE TONE

“CREATING THE DESIGN”

- Arrivals and departures are emotional transitions for children and family members
- Provide personal attention
- Individualized and consistent care
- Supportive techniques can be used at the beginning and end of day
- Make time to exchange information

SUPPORTING TRANSITIONS “REGULAR MAINTENANCE”

- Keep them limited
- Prepare and guide children
- Allow for transition objects
- Create a picture schedule
- Prepare children
- Use cues

LIKE US ON FACEBOOK:
@WNYITRN OR WNY
INFANT TODDLER
RESOURCE NETWORK

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER:
@WNY_ITRN

